Unit 14 Dealing with money

In a restaurant

M = man W1 = waiter W = woman

M: Can we have the bill, please?

W1: Certainly.

W: No, let me.

M: No, no, I insist.

W: Thank you, that's very kind of you. It was a lovely meal, thank you.

M: Not at all, don't mention it. It's my ... pleasure.

W: Are you ok?

M: Sorry? Yes, fine. Listen, can you do me a favour?

W: Mmm?

M: Could you lend me forty pounds?

M: Thank you. I'll pay you back next week.

M: Do you think we should leave a tip?

In a taxi

W = woman M = man

W: It's just here on the right, that's it, you can stop here.

M: There you are.

W: Right, how much do I owe you?

M: That's £19.95 please.

W: Ok, £19.95. Oh, have you got change for a fifty pound note?

M: Sorry, no change. Have you got anything smaller?

W: No.

M: There's a cashpoint just there.

W: Right.

There you are. There's twenty pounds, keep the change.

M: Thank you madam, very kind of you.
